

HASS Hour Summer 2009

"He ate and drank the precious words, His spirit grew robust..." Emily Dickinson

May 21 TimePiece

What Is an "Eel-Lee," and What Is It Doing in HASS?

Ann Roemer

Director, Associate Professor

Intensive English Language Institute

Student guests:

Banna Diop Guisee, Senegal
and Saleh AlMalki, Saudi Arabia

HASS Hour is an hour of good food, good company, intellectual engagement and the TimePiece. We invite you to take part in this evening event.

HASS Hour is held the third Thursday of each month and begins at 5:15, the TimePiece begins at 6:00. All HASS Hour events will be held at the Logan Golf and Country Club, 710 North 1500 East, Logan.

The country club offers a soup and salad bar. Cost is $6.95 (plus tax and gratuity). Beverages are purchased on an individual basis. There is no admission fee.

For more information, please call Teri Guy at 435-797-4072.

Upcoming presentations:

- | | |
|-----------|--|
| June 18 | Landscape Architecture and Environmental Planning
Carlos Licon
Swaner Research Assistant Professor |
| July 16 | Art
Alan Hashimoto
Associate Professor of Graphic Design |
| August 20 | History
Dan McInerney
Professor of History |