The Summer Scoop

Happy Fall!

With the leaves turning colors, we are starting to see all of the students back on campus! We miss having you up here and cannot wait for next summer. After taking a brief break, we are looking into all your advice to make next year even better. We have started working on getting instructors for next summer and looking into what tours we can offer next summer!

Speaking of next summer, housing contracts are currently available! Check out our sponsored housing HERE on the website to find information about these properties and contact information to find the place you'll call home next summer!

So now it's a great time to enjoy your favorite pumpkin spice treat and get ready for fall to come in full swing!

"This has been such a wonderful experience in so many ways!"

Thank you all for filling out the End of Summer Survey! We love hearing your thoughts on our program! Check out some of these testimonials!

"If you had a magic lamp like Aladdin and you wished for a perfect summer, your Genie would transport you to Logan, Utah. You could save the other two wishes because everything you wanted would be available."

-Norene and Fred Stafford

"Just what the doctor ordered; intellectual stimulation and cultural immersion in a return to nature setting."

-Jean Tittle

"Just completed my fifteenth season as a Summer Citizens and we've signed up for number sixteen in 2020! I think that says it all!"

USU Announcements:

On Fridays, we wear Aggie Blue!

Join Aggies everywhere and wear "Aggie Blue" and "Fighting White" every Friday in honor of True Blue Aggie Fridays!

New Bag Check Policy:

Starting this fall, USU is implementing a phased security check for all attendees at men's basketball and football games during the 2019-20 season. This will include a bag search for the upcoming sport seasons. Click HERE for more details about what is permitted for the upcoming year if you're planning on coming to any Aggie Games!

101 Years of "The Scotsman"

Have you ever seen the song that the students sing along with the fight song at Aggie games? This song is called the Scotsman! Written by a student in 1918 to demonstrate the perseverance of USU and its students, this song is as important as the fight song at Utah State University. Click HERE to watch a video of students doing it. The lyrics can be found below:

Show me a Scotsman,
Who doesn't love the thistle.
Show me an Englishman,
Who doesn't love the rose.
Show me a true-blooded
Aggie from Utah.
Who doesn't love the spot . . .
Where the sagebrush grows!

Scholarship Recipients:

Every year, we are so grateful for the money that is donated to help a student attending Utah State University. We are so grateful for all that you do to help support the youth of today! We would like to introduce you to our two 2019 scholarship recipients.

Ashley Perez:

Ashley recently graduated from Ridgeline High School and is going to school to become a high school Spanish teacher so that she can connect with her students and help them be successful both in the classroom and outside of it. In addition to helping her future students, Ashley is going to school to set an example to her younger brothers and those around her as she becomes the first person to graduate with a college degree in her family.

She truly cares about those around her and never ceases to show them. She is going to touch so many lives as she meets new people in her classes and on campus.

USU Education Program:

- USU Education program is ranked 27th in the nation!
- A USU teaching license transfers to over 30+ states
- Opportunities to participate in international student teaching
- You start teaching in a classroom your second year of school
- USU has on campus: 4 preschools and 1 elementary school that allows student to have on-campus experience without leaving campus.
- Undergraduate and graduate research opportunities

USU Accounting Program:

- Constantly ranked as one of the top accounting programs, always in the top 50 regardless of the small faculty numbers.
- Master's degree is among the Top 10 schools in the nation on the uniformly administered CPA exam.
- Undergraduate and graduate opportunities both inside the classroom and out help build successful future accountants.
- Being the language of business, the program acknowledges the preparedness it provides for more than just accounting, but all careers.

Kiley Duersch:

Kiley recently graduated from Ridgeline High School and will be attending Utah State University in the fall. She plans to major in accounting. She is a good student and is passionate about gaining an education. During high school, she spent time as the girls' basketball manager and served on the Nibley City Youth Council for three years. Part of her responsibilities on the youth council allowed her to plan some of the big events in Nibley. As the oldest in her family, she is a good example to both her siblings and others around her as she is driven and persistent in the face of opposition. She is a natural leader and is willing to work hard. Kiley is going to be successful in whatever she ends up doing in the future.
